- 1. Fraternity: What starts with meeting new people and joining in a celebratory drink after a round will turn into lifelong friendships.
- 2. Competition: Men's Club offers players of all skill levels opportunities to participate in fun golf competitions utilizing the USGA Rules of Golf multiple times each month.
- 3. Be a Better Golfer: Nearly all new members in 2021 improved their Handicap Index and 54% of returning members improved again year over year.
- 4. Learn the Rules: Tired of your partner making up rules as they go along, you'll always find someone in the Men's Club who can give you the proper ruling.
- 5. Get a Handicap Index: You will establish an official USGA Handicap Index, which allows you to compete with any golfer and track your progress on the path to getting better.

- 6. The Great Outdoors: The more you golf the more you are getting outside and exercising. Golfers walk as many as 6 miles on an average 18-hole round.
- 7. Find a Mentor: From picking up a few pointers on your swing to gaining insights for life off the course, you'll always find someone in the Men's Club willing to help and provide guidance.
- 8. Fun: No matter your skill level, the Men's Club will connect you to a great group of people that have fun on the course!
- 9. Meaning of Life: One of the best ways to get to know someone is to play a round of golf with them. It's amazing how many deep, meaningful conversations you can have with people from all walks of life while enjoying the greatest sport on earth.
- 10. Lasting Memories: From the first meeting to the last event you are guaranteed to make memories that will last a lifetime.
